500 TO RECEIVE A LITTLE HOLIDAY CHEER AT CHILDREN'S MEDICAL SERVICES

WEST PALM BEACH, FL—Many within the community are hosting a holiday party for over 500 children with special health care needs at Children's Medical Services, Saturday December 5, 2003 from 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM.

Scheduled to help these kids have a special day are the Suncoast High School Choir, Suncoast High School Football Players and Cheerleaders, a Disk Jockey, clowns, face painters, carnival type games and a special visit from Santa Claus himself, arriving in a custom street rod courtesy of the Asphalt Angels (call it a modern day sleigh).

Girl Scouts from around the county have volunteered to distribute clothing, toys, gifts and great carnival foods that have been donated by MacArthur Dairy Farms, Cysco Foods, Publix, Asphalt Angels, Hollywood Medical, Doctors' Medical Rental, Tenet Health Systems and area churches.

Children's Medical Services is located at 5101 Greenwood and provides health care to special needs children and their families throughout the State of Florida.
