In recognition of World AIDS Day, Compass and the NAMES Project will display the largest selection of the AIDS Memorial Quilts in Florida at The Calvary United Methodist Church in Lake Worth.

The AIDS Memorial Quilt, now honoring its 21th anniversary, is the largest on-going community arts project in the world and one of the first and most powerful tools in HIV prevention.

The 240 panels, sewn into 30 panels of 12 by 12 sq. ft. blocks, will be shown throughout the church. In addition, a candlelight vigil will take place at 7pm, along with calling of names, induction ceremonies and a special presentation by Jessica Alvarez.
