New students in Palm Beach County need a "680" blue card from Florida with vaccines verified and signed by a medical provider.

Kindergarten students (age 4-5) - Boosters for DTaP, Polio, MMR and Varicella (chicken pox) (in addition to all other vaccines.)

1st and 2nd grade - 2 Varicella (in addition to all other vaccines.)

7th & 8th Grades (age 11-12) - Tdap booster (in addition to all other vaccines.)

Physicals are also required for new students, and students in Kindergarten and 7th grade.

Childhood immunization records should be brought to the provider when receiving new or updated shots.

Health Centers operated by the Palm Beach County Health Department are located from Delray Beach to Jupiter and west to Belle Glade and offer children's vaccines daily. Visit www.pbchd.com or call toll-free, 1-800-810-1225 for locations and times.
